Remarkable Railroading. Baltimore and Obio Railroa I Co.'s fast trains between Philadelphia and Wash logion still maintain an unbeaten record for punctuality. During the 31 days of last mouth the "Flying Yankee," which leaves Washington at 8:15 in the morning, arrived Philadelphia on time every day except four, and only once as much as 19 minutes into Foliadelphia on time every day except four, and only once as much as 19 minutes late. The "Senatorial Express," which leaves Washington in the afternoon at 4:20 arrived Faliadelphia on time every day except two; once 18 minutes late, and once 17 minutes. The south bound "Senatorial Express," which leaves Philadelphia at 8:30 s. m., arrived Washington on time every day except once, and on that occusion was 15 minutes behind time. This is an average punctuality for the month of 93 per cent, and keeping in view the fact that these are be fastest trains ever in service between be two cities, the performance is a romarkable one, and indicates the attention is detail paid by the operating department of the Company as well as the high standard of the B. and O. track and equipment.

The Prevalence of Typhoid. It is believed by certain parties that it a prevalence of typhoid here is due to some extent to the old sewers laid under the late East of Public Works. A gentleman formerly employed in the sewer division of the District, and now in the Geological Survey, is studying out the problem, and he has been granted permission by Engineer Commissioner Raymond to use the maps and records of the District sewers to verify, if possible, his theory that the disease exists more extensively in the neighborhood of these sewers.

Arrested for Fast Driving. James Murphy, an express wagon driver was arrested yesterday by Officer Kaucher for fast driving at the corner of Seventh for fast driving at the corner of Seventh silver and Poinsylvania avenue. There have been numerous complaints lodged about this corner, and the police have been instructed to adopt the most stringent methods to prevent fast driving at this place. This express wagon, however, was loaded with eggs, which induced Julige Miller to believe that the driving was not too rapid, so he accepted the personal bonds of the detendant.

A Fight Interrupted. William Lancaster and Thomas Walker ged in a "scrap" last night which night have resulted very seriously had it might have resulted very seriously had it not been for their arrest. They had some difficulty and Walker went to the house of a friend, procured a revolver and went gundler for his enemy. Lancaster succeeded in carving up Walker a triffe during the hight, which fortunately was the only damage done. In the Police Court this morning Walker was given $70 or four months, and Lancaster $20 or thirty days in default. Professor Marini's Funeral feeror Marini, who died suddenly yes day afternoon, had conducted a dancing terday afternoon, had conducted a dancing academy in this city for over thirty years. He was born in Altona, Raly, and coming to this country when he was 16 years old, studied dancing with Soroeco, in New York. ANOTHER MAN TO BANG

Nelson Colhert Sentenced for the Murder of Philip Wenzel. The 5th of next April will be bloody day at the District fail. Two men convicted of murder have been sentenced to hang on that day, Albert Green and William Briggs. The third, Nelson Colbert, stood before the judge this morning in the court-room Judge this morning in the court-room where he was convicted of the murder of Philip Wenzel and heard from Judge Montgomery the words: "The sentence in your case is that you be taken hence to the jail, be kept in confinement until Friday, April 5, and between the hours of 12 and 2 o'clock, be hanced by the next until your sea drinking might afford some moral but no legal extenuation of the crime. It was a case in which the jury had done its work exceedingly well.

Wenzel was an old man, employed as superintendent at the Columbia car stables, where it was Colbert's duty to change the horses. Colbert had agreed to do extra duty and went out and drank a quantity of liquor. He was reprimanded by Wenzel and became angry and demanded his pay. This Wenzel said he could not give him, and Colbert fired the shot which killed him. For the defense it was claimed that Wenzel had threatened Colbert with a stick, but the evidence showed that he had merely tapped him in a frendly way with a stick that he carried. Colbert said on the stand that he had pulled the pistol to keep the crowd off and that it caught in his pocket and went off accidentally.

Judge Sneil, who with Captain

AMUSEMENTS.

ALBAUGE'S-"THE BENRIETTA." Robson and Crane, in "The Hearietta," will be the attractive feature at Albaug'a's next week, and it will be such an attraction next week, and it will be such an attraction as will fill the house every night. This is the last season when Robson and Crane will be in partnership, and their dissolution is in the nature of a public calamity. "The Henrietta" hardly needs description to commend it to amusement-goers. It is one of the best things Bronson Howard ever wrote, and its rin and its popularity have been a combined boom since the beginning. It is a comedy out of tragedy material, and the way it takes is simply phenomenal. "The Henrietta" is a mine (it is also other things), and its manipulation in Wall street and the West gives plenty of room to build up the play of which so much has been written and spoken.

Harries' Risou—"CNCLE TOM'S CARIN."

HARRIS' BIJOU-"UNCLE TOM'S CABIN." The patient suffering of U cle Tom, the troubles of George and Eliza Harris, the antics of Topsy, the almost unearthly goolness of Eva, the eccentricities of Marks the ness of Eva, the eccentricities of Marks the lawyer and the various phases of the other characters in "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will all be seen at Harris' Theater next week. The story seems to be of never-failing in-terest to theater-goers when properly pre-sented, and the company at Harris' is said to be the best one now traveling. New scenes and situations have been introduced and the stage will be set with claberate and the stage will be set with elaborate scenery. The corps of Jubiles Singers is large and the music they render constitutes an interesting part of the performance.

THE FAMOUS LILLIPUTIAN.
Lucia Zarate, the world-famous Mexican lliputian, and Major Atom, who appeared in this city ten years ago under the management of Mr. Frank Uffner, will management of Mr. Frank Officer, will sgain make their appearance at the Bull Run Panorama Company building, Battle of Shilon, on Monday, February 18. This is their first appearance in the city of Washington for ten years, and they have neither increased in height nor weight. Lucia Zarate is 26 years old and weighs 42 popular.

THE NANDER-MIERSON CONCERT. Next Monday evening at 8 o'clock the grand concert to be given by Mr. Heavy Xander, the well-known planist, and Mr. Paul Miersch will take place at the Congreraul Miersch will take place at the Congre-gational Church. They will be assisted by Miss Helen Livingstone, the American prima donna; Mr. Michael Banner, the young violinist, and Mr. Morsell, our own tenor. The concert is to be a very fashion-able one, and not less attractive artistically. Seats at Droop's music store. STODDARD LECTURES.

One of the coming very popular attrac-tions will be the Stoddard lectures, of which Mr. Stoddard has prepared a new course, which will be given, as usual, in duplicate at Congregational Church—course A on March 5, 8, 11, 13 and 19, and course B on March 6, 9, 12, 18 and 20. The sale of tickets will begin Monday, the 18th, at Ellis'. The subjects will be: "Old England," "Holland and Belgium," "Cardinal Richelieu," "Florence" and "Rome." THE BOSTON SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA will give its farewell concert at Congregasoloist is to be Miss Aus der Ohe, whose position in the first rank of planists will hardly be questioned. This concert will be not only the last appearance this season of the orebestra, but the last time also at which Mr. Gericke, its talented leader, will face a Washington audience. A lively demand already experienced supplemented by the large course sale makes it evident that a crowded house is to be looked for. Mr. Gericke has arranged a fine programme as follows: Overture, Der Freischutz, Weber; Concerto for Plano in E flat, Liszt; Suite in D Prelude, Polka, Romanza, Fluale, Dvorak; Largo, by request, ifandel; Scherzo, Adagio, Fluale, Symphony No. 2, Schumann. sition in the first rank of planists will

Next week, at the National, Rose Coghlan will appear in "Jocelyn," a play written by Charles H. Coghlan, and said by many emi-nent critics to be one of the greatest productions for years. KERNAN'S-REILLY & WOODS.

Next week at Kernan's the famous favorites Reilly & Woods' Big Show will appear again, the head and front of all vaudeville organizations, so the bills say. We don't say they are the best, but look at We don't say they are the best, but look at these names and judge for yourselves: The Valdis twin sisters, in their trapezene rotaire; Napier and Marzello, grotesque bar acrobats; Madeliene Rosa, the only female ventriloquist; Fish and Roletin, one and a-half; the Healys, Miss Bessie Gilbert, Fiorence Miller, Pat Reilly and John Sparks, in "Two Noble Rogues," and a lot more. How is that? To-night Childs and Donnelly will give a friendly set-to, and those who want to see a fine exhibition of the manly art, had better get in early.
